

What is English This Week?

English This Week is an English coaching video exchange programme. You record yourself speaking in English, send it to me, and I'll give you focussed feedback that will help you improve your English

It's like English lessons, but much, much more focussed.

I know that it's hard to find time for English lessons, especially if you're a parent and you have a job, and are trying to work-from-home, and home-schooling and do all the things.

You can improve your English without lessons!

In this programme you're in charge. We are focussed on what you need and want to talk about. You talk about what you choose to, at your level, and I'll help you improve.

If you have any questions, please email me at abbie@englishthisweek.com

English This Week Framework Overview

English This Week is a very simple idea.

You talk, I'll correct you. The most difficult part is deciding what to say!

The great thing with using videos is I can listen in depth to your grammar, vocabulary choices, and your pronunciation. In lessons it's hard for the teacher to provide such in-depth feedback because they have limited time with you, and also they can't replay what you said so they might just focus on one part of the elements of speaking and they forget the rest!

Unlike lessons you can talk about whatever you need and want to, so at first I'll want to know about your and your reasons for needing to improve your English. After that I'll ask you to talk more about those situations and circumstances where you feel you need to improve.

And if you say it perfectly I'll tell you!

English This Week All the important details

1. Choose if you'd like one task per week or two. Currently priced at $80 USD a month for one task a week, and $120 USD a month for two tasks a week. You cannot carry over tasks to the next month. For example if you only complete 3 tasks within the 30 days you cannot have 5 tasks the next month.

2. Sign up and receive your first task. I'll send a reminder if I don't hear back from you within a week. Record your task - up to 5 minutes, and email it to Abbie

3. I'll send a video and written feedback within 72 hours of receiving yours (not including weekends). For example if you send me a video on Friday afternoon, I'll reply by Wednesday morning. If I'm unable to complete my response within that 72 hours, I'll inform you as soon as possible.

4. I'll send ideas for the next task. All the feedback and videos will be sorted in a private Google Drive folder so we can both access them anytime.

5. If you wish to pause because of holiday or sickness, your credit can be used for up to 12 months. After 12 months of no activity you'll lose your credits. A pause will begin 24 hours after you give notice.

5. If you join now and keep a regular subscription you'll always pay the same price. If you unsubscribe and then resubscribe you will be charged at the current rate at that time.

6. I want you to be happy, please let me know any problems, concerns or wishes you have during our time together!
